

Crit Streed is originally from Iowa and is currently Professor of Painting and Drawing at the University of Northern Iowa. Exhibitions include both national and international venues where she exhibits drawings and video installations. She is a National Affiliate member of A.I.R. Gallery and a member of The Drawing Center Viewing Program in NYC. Streed just returned from six months in Guatemala on a Professional Development Grant to work on video and a series of drawings.