

Yuki Nakamura graduated from Joshibi University of Art and Design, Tokyo in 1994 and earned a Master of Fine Arts degree from the University of Washington in 1997. She had one-person exhibitions at the Peeler Art Center, DePauw University in Indiana, Howard House Contemporary Art in Seattle, Kittredge Gallery, University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, and SOIL Gallery in Seattle. She received grants from Artist Trust, 4Culture, Joshibi University of Art and Design, and a Pollock-Krasner Foundation grant. She has been nominated for the 2007 Neddy Artist Fellowship by Behnke Foundation. She has completed artist-in-residency programs at 911 Media Arts Center/ the Henry Art Gallery in Seattle, Centrum in Port Townsend, the Vermont Studio Center, Johnson, Vermont, La Napoule Art Foundation, France and Novara Arte Cultura, Italy. Her work is included in the collections of Tacoma Art Museum, Microsoft Corporation, the Swedish Cancer Institute, Ulrich Museum of Art, and the Tacoma Trade and Convention Center.