

JORDON SCHRANZ

Born in 1975 in Chicago Heights, Illinois
Lives and works in New York

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2006 Museum of Fine Art, Las Cruces, NM, Life and Liberty Post 9/11
- 2005 Brooklyn Academy of Music Silent Auction
- 2003 Museo de la Universidad Nacional, Bogotá, Columbia, Drawing Only
- 1998 Emanuel Herman Prize recipient
- 1997 Alvin J. Meyerberg Family Scholarship

RECORDINGS

- 2007 CD "La Otracina", La Otracina, Holy Mountain Records
- 2007 CD "Jordon & Marie", Jordon & Marie, Tigerasylum Records
- 2007 CD "Ghosts", the eASTERN sEABOARD, Tigerasylum Records
- 2007 CD "Ninni Morgia & Jordon Schranz Duo", Ninni Morgia and Jordon Schranz Duo, Setola Di Maiale - Musiche Non Convenzionali
- 2006 CD "Once There Were Some", QUIVERS, ColourSound Recordings/Tigerasylum Records
- 2005 12" LP "Won't Lovers Revolt Now?", the eASTERN sEABOARD, Tigerasylum Records
- 2004 CD "Nonfiction", the eASTERN sEABOARD, Black Saint Records
- 2004 CD "Outbound", the eASTERN sEABOARD, Tigerasylum Records

EDUCATION

1998, B.F.A., Painting (Cum Laude)
Maryland Institute College of Art
Baltimore, Maryland

1996, Philosophy Minor
Eastern Illinois University
Charleston, Illinois

Jordon Schranz is a New York based visual artist and musician whose work focuses on the idea of social and political interaction and underlying cultural structures. He regularly curates, performs, and promotes avant-garde rock, free jazz, noise and experimental music performances and is a recording artist on the Black Saint record label with his group the eASTERN sEABOARD, whom he tours with nationally. In addition he regularly performs and records with QUIVERS, Jordon & Marie, and La Otracina as well with numerous musicians in the New York free jazz scene (including Daniel Carter, Blaise Siwula, Katsuyuki Itakura, Mike Pride, and Bonnie Kane). Other recordings of his appear on Holy Mountain Records, ColourSound Recordings, Setola Di Maiale - Musiche Non Convenzionali, and on his own label, Tigerasylum Records, which he runs with Shayna Dulberger.